

fête à fête

Life is a gorgeous fête, thanks to chocolate, champagne, great friends and tasty food... it's absolutely sweet when you meet someone fabulous, see a great foreign film, go dancing (Argentine tango rocks!) or hear a wonderful band — Pink Martini or Paris Combo anyone?

Khaya Cookie Company

Shortbread fans will love the new hand crafted Cranberry Rooibos Shortbread from South Africa's The Khaya Cookie Company. Perfect for an afternoon tea, these tasty bite-sized cookies are delicate and buttery.

The company also makes a nice Orange Rooibos Shortbread that's great paired with a white tea or dessert wine. Their Granola Fruit Krunchies are a healthy way to snack, with moist dates and organic apricots. It's pretty low in sugar so it's ideal for a picnic or a hike.

Khaya is also committed to building a sustainable business, so when you buy a box of these treats, the proceeds go towards helping unemployed women from townships of South Africa become skilled bakers. I also like how the ingredients are sourced locally, from the butter to the rooibos tea.

So go ahead, indulge in some buttery goodness. It's free of trans fat, additives, and preservatives. That kinda helps lessen the guilt factor!
